

PROTECTION WITH POSSIBILITIES¹

What if...

Various sectors of the market tumble and your portfolio value falls with it, possibly significantly? Are you reluctant to put your portfolio at higher risk to potentially make up for those losses?

Traditional interest rate sensitive investments are generating near historically-low yields and you're worried about meeting your financial goals?

If you are mindful of risk and want full principal protection on your investments, Principal Protected Notes, considered complex investments, can give you the confidence to participate in the markets and capture any potential upside opportunities.¹

These unique solutions may help you:

- Protect your principal against losses, if held to maturity¹
- Increase the potential for growth and/or income¹
- Feel more financially prepared to meet your goals

The investment products discussed herein are considered complex investment products. Such products contain unique features, risks, terms, conditions, fees, charges and expenses specific to each product. The overall performance of the product is dependent upon the performance of an underlying or linked derivative financial instrument, formula or strategy. Return of principal is not guaranteed and is subject to the credit risk of the issuer. Investments in complex products are subject to the risks of the underlying asset classes to which the product may be linked, which include, but are not limited to, market risk, liquidity risk, call risk, income risk as well as other risks associated with foreign, developing or emerging markets, such as currency, political and economic risks. Depending upon the particular complex product, participation in any underlying or linked product is subject to certain caps and restrictions. Any investment product with leverage associated may work for or against the investor. Principal Protected Notes are subject to the credit risk of the issuer. Investors that sell complex products or Principal Protected Notes prior to maturity are subject to the risk of loss of principal, as there may not be an active secondary market. You should not purchase a complex investment product until you have read the specific offering documentation and understand the specific investment terms, features, risks, fees, charges and expenses of such investment.

The information contained herein does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy securities. Investment products described herein may not be offered for sale in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful or prohibited by the specific offering documentation.
